

Annual Report on SDG1 No Poverty

1.3 University anti-poverty programs

13.2 Graduation or completion targets for students from the bottom 20% household income group (domestic)

In the past, students from vulnerable groups, low-income families, and underprivileged backgrounds achieved a 100% graduation rate. This success is attributed to their strong determination to complete their studies and pursue a career, as well as the continuous support they receive through scholarships and various forms of assistance throughout their time at the university.

In 2024, overlapping the academic years 2023 and 2024, there were 1,711 students from vulnerable families who graduated from Thaksin University

Success of students from low-income families or vulnerable groups

In addition, throughout their studies, each student is assigned an academic advisor who provides continuous guidance and support, overseeing their overall well-being and serving as someone they can always turn to for advice.

In supporting and caring for students, Thaksin University regularly organizes orientation and training sessions for academic advisors each year. This ensures that advisors are well-prepared and fully understand their roles, giving confidence that every student will receive the best possible care and guidance throughout their studies.

Preparation for being Good Advisors

The objectives of this activity are to enable academic advisors to develop self-awareness and understanding of others, to be well-prepared to support and care for students, and to have guidelines for observing, responding to, and assisting students effectively. It also aims to enhance advisors' capacity to provide initial counseling, to familiarize them with the mechanisms and direction of student support operations, and to foster positive relationships among faculty members and staff involved in student care and guidance.
